

SUPPLEMENT TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1866

Rebent of offices for the melting, assaying and stamping of gold and silver, at Albany and Tucson, in Arizona; Austin, in Nevada; at Santa Fe, in New Mexico; at Great Salt Lake City, in Utah; at Boise City, in Idaho; at Virginia City, in Montana; at Duluth, in Minnesota. The remaining provisions organizing these offices are similar to the act establishing the New York Assay Office. By the sixth section the option is given to the mine to receive his bullion in bars or ingots, less two per cent for cost of assay, and in preference to native gold, rolled or certified scales payable at the rates in San Francisco or Philadelphia, and which shall be receivable in payment of all debts due to the United States.

BRIDGING THE MISSOURI.

Mr. ROSSAY introduced a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee, to consist of three officers of the corps of Engineers of the United States army, to report next session upon the best plans and proper places for bridging the Mississippi river with least impediment to navigation, and the appropriate sum in demand, so as to defray the expense of the commission.

THE BRIDGE CORPS.
